DUPAGE DEMOCRATS OUTVOTE DUPAGE REPUBLICANS

For the first time in living memory, yesterday the DuPage Democrats outvoted DuPage Republicans in a Primary Election. The countywide vote totals were 131,345 to 107,769.

“DuPage County is rapidly changing,” said Rob Bisceglie, Chairman of the DuPage Democrats.

“Voters have been excited about our Democratic presidential candidates. But there is also a strong desire for change at the local level.”

“We have doubled our number of precinct committeemen this year. We have a record number of local Democratic candidates. We broke a fundraising record in 2007, which was an off-election year. These are all signs of increasing Democratic fervor in DuPage County”

“We anticipate a heated November election. We will be working hard to continue turning Democratic citizens into Democratic voters.”
